Two Hands Together

‘Two Hands Together’ is special to me It is written by my grandma you see In the year 2000 it went to print the year my mum and her took an overseas stint the plane landed early in the UK this was the morning my grandma passed away she collapsed and fell from DVT a great shock for mum and the family this book she wrote won many awards the legacy left a big applause she inspires me to write some prose maybe i’ll become a writer too who knows
