RED ROOM POETRY OBJECT 2014 SHORTLIST

Congratulations and thank you to each and every poet who has helped make this the biggest and brightest Poetry Object competition to date!

With over 2550 object offerings received from students, teachers and school-cleaners across Australia and New Zealand, we've been awed and inspired by the imaginations unearthed and the incredibly high standard of entries. In the words of Poetry Object judge, Scott-Patrick Mitchell, "These warriors of words are creating for themselves a brave new world. And the goals they set themselves in my mind reap more rewards, promise more hope than any Premiership Cup. Come on you mighty poets, grow."
